

Meet Mr. Salifu Bah

Mr. Salifu is currently the Director of Finance at the Petroleum Commission-Gambia, with a strong proven track record of financial excellence and strategic leadership. His extensive experience includes roles at Gambia National Petroleum Corporation (GNPC), Ecobank Gambia, Access Bank Gambia, DT-Associates, and Deloitte and Touche-The Gambia. Salifu Bah's skills encompass financial analysis, corporate finance, taxation, budgeting, risk management, strategic planning, and effective team leadership. He brings a global perspective to his financial expertise, making him an asset in the field.

Salifu co-founded the Finance Leadership Forum with colleagues and currently serves as the Membership and Public Relations Manager. During the first three years, the forum launched quarterly webinars and organized more than four physical events that drew over 200 professionals. The platform is designed to bring together finance professionals to network, share, and learn from one another, as well as inspire aspiring professionals.

In addition, as part of his social enterprise, Salifu served as Treasurer of the Pakau Njogu Village Development Association. In this voluntary role, he served on committees that have implemented career-changing initiatives to encourage and mentor young people in the Village.

As a prospective candidate, Salifu aims to represent and advance the interest of Chartered Accountants on both national and international fronts. Embracing technological integration, fostering financial sustainability, and promoting continuous professional development initiatives are integral components of his plan. Furthermore, he commits to elevating public awareness, promoting responsible professional practices, and providing responsive member services.

Salifu Bah holds an MSc in Finance and Investment from the London School of Business and Finance (LSBF) and is a member of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA).
